

THE Singing Hills

In Concert

Known for their heartfelt sincerity, close family harmonies, original songs and great sense of humor, the Hills uplift and inspire their audience through their personal, up close presentation. They have recorded over a dozen albums & made numerous television appearances. Each year thousands of people attend the Singing Hills powerful live concerts, and appreciate their gracious ability to gently communicate the gospel message to all ages.

The group currently consists of Roger and Patti Hill; three of their four daughters, Kari, Kelli, and Kim; and Kim's husband Kevin Elias. The Singing Hills' quality of performance, unique style of Southern Gospel and heartwarming energy both onstage and off continues to bless many people every year.
